

GENERAL GRIERSON'S RAID.

His Sweeping Work on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad.

Great Damage to the Rebels Inflicted.

General Grierson has received information from his cavalry force sent out from here on the 21st of December. They struck the Mobile and Ohio Railroad five miles below Corinth, and had, on the 27th, utterly destroyed it to below Okolona. Twenty-nine bridges, a great deal of freight, thirty-two rail cars, 300 army wagons and 4,000 carriages were destroyed.

Forty-six camp of dismounted men at Everona was dispersed. Six officers and twenty men were captured. The expedition did not lose a man. General Grierson has orders to destroy the road as far as Meridian, and release our prisoners at Gettysburg if possible.

THE ST. ALBANS RAIDERS.

The question as to the jurisdiction of the Court in the case of the raiders decided affirmatively.

The question of the jurisdiction of the Court in the case of the rebel raiders, arrested, which has been under deliberation for some time past, was today decided. The decision was that the Court had jurisdiction. The case will therefore proceed.

THE PASSPORT SYSTEM.

Action of the Detroit Board of Trade—Commissioners sent to Canada—Strikes of the Detroit Board of Trade.

The passport system becomes more and more obnoxious to our citizens every day. It is condemned by all business men and others who have to cross the border. It is a hardship to all our business men, and it is a hardship to all our citizens who have to cross the border. It is a hardship to all our business men, and it is a hardship to all our citizens who have to cross the border.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ABOLISHING SLAVERY.

General Grierson's Raid.

The House was engaged during most of the session to-day in the discussion of the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery. A test vote is to be taken on Monday afternoon. But little interest appears to be taken in the discussion, the attendance yesterday and to-day having been quite meagre. It is impossible to predict with any certainty the result, though it is hoped by the friends of the measure that it will pass. It is believed that the rebels now hang their only remaining hope of ultimate success upon the proposition to barter the institution of slavery for a recognition of their independence by France and England. It is understood that assurances have been given that if this amendment should be adopted here, all excuse for the recognition of the rebel confederacy will be removed; but if it should fail to pass, and the South should agree to give up slavery, recognition will immediately follow. There is no doubt of the passage of the amendment by the next Congress; and it should not be done by the present one it is probable that an extra session of the Congress will be called for this purpose.

GENERAL FREMONT NOT TO BE APPOINTED MINISTER TO FRANCE.

THE NEGRO IN GEORGIA ANXIOUS TO ACCOMPANY SHERMAN ON HIS MARCH.

A letter received here from General Sherman states that if he had been able to find the negroes who desired to accompany him on his recent march through Georgia, he could have brought a hundred thousand away with him. Not being able to provide for them, he was obliged to refuse most of them the desired permission, and for the present leave them within the rebel lines.

MR. DRAPE'S MISSION TO SAVANNAH.

Mr. Drape, collector of New York, does not go to Savannah as cotton agent, but on a special mission in regard to the large quantities of cotton and rice captured there, and to make arrangements for securing the rights of the government in this respect.

THE OBJECT OF MR. GREELY'S VISIT TO WASHINGTON.

It is stated to-night that while the ostensible object of Mr. Greeley's visit here is a peace mission, in conjunction with opposition members of Congress, the real purpose is to aid Mr. Charles Gould and others to pass the Bantian Railroad bill through the Senate. It does seem possible that Greeley would do this.

HANCOCK'S CORPS.

The following appointments have been made in General Hancock's First Vermont Corps, to date from December 20, 1884: Major, E. M. Curtis. Captains—Geo. W. Willard, John T. O'Connell, E. S. O'Connell, P. W. Pineson, W. Crawford, Ralph W. Buchanan, John F. Hogue, Elliott H. Benton, John W. Roney, John P. Kinney, Jacob Marti, George W. Shinn, William Harman, Second Lieutenants—Joseph Pearson, Almon L. Goss, Late Tenth Maine Volunteers; J. F. Munson, Charles Sherman.

DETENTION ON TRAINS BY ICE AT HAYDE GRACE.

The train from New York, due here at 10 o'clock this evening, is detained by floating ice on the Susquehanna, preventing the passage of boats at Harro de Grace. There will be no arrival before to-morrow. The half-past seven train from New York from here did not leave to-night.

MEASURE ATTENDANCE OF MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE.

It is hoped that by Monday there will be a full attendance of the members of the House, there not having been at any time since the holidays more than a bare quorum present. Business of vital importance is to be transacted, and the time remaining of the present Congress is very brief; and it is of the utmost importance that every member should be present.

QUINT TIMES IN WASHINGTON.

It is very hard here at present, and the stagnation of public business consequent upon the holidays has not yet been dissipated. A lively time is, however, anticipated for the next few weeks.

RECEPTIONS AT THE WHITE HOUSE AND BY SPEAKER COLPAX.

The President receives his weekly receptions next Monday evening. Mrs. Lincoln's first reception will be held next Saturday afternoon, from one to three o'clock. Speaker Colfax also resumes his weekly receptions next Friday evening. The indications are that the social season, if short, will be brilliant.

MOVEMENTS OF ADMIRAL PARAGUIT.

Vice Admiral Paraguit visited the Navy Department to-day, and in company with Secretary Welles afterwards paid his respects to President Lincoln.

MR. DANA ACCEPTS OFFICE OF WAR IN THE ABSENCE OF MR. STANTON.

Assistant Secretary of War Dana is acting as Secretary of War in the absence of Mr. Stanton.

PERSONAL.

Major General Burnside, Franklin and Miles and Brigadier General Barlett arrived in town to-day.

THE CASE OF MRS. HUTCHINS.

As extensive publicity has been given to the account of the arrest of Mrs. Hutchins, the following may prove of interest:
